Anti-Ragging Week Observance Report

Date: August 12th, 2025.

Venue: Ramananda Auditorium

In adherence to the guidelines set forth by the University Grants Commission (UGC) for a ragging-free campus, and to raise awareness about the serious issue of ragging and foster a positive and inclusive environment, Anti-Ragging Week was successfully observed at our college auditorium. The event witnessed the presence of esteemed dignitaries, including Dr. Swapan Mukhopadhyay (Teacher-In-Charge, Bankura Sammilani College), Dr. Mrinmoy Shannigrahi (IQAC Coordinator), Dr. Swapnadip Roy (Convener, Anti-Ragging Cell), along with honourable Governing Body Members Dr. Shantanu Hazra, Dr. Rajendra P. Mondal, Dr. Swadesh Mandal and Hostel Superintendents, underscoring the collective commitment towards eradicating the menace of ragging.

Objectives of the Anti-Ragging Week

The primary objectives of the Anti-Ragging Week were to:

- Educate students about the definition, various forms, and severe consequences of ragging as outlined in the UGC Regulations.
- Promote a culture of respect, empathy, and inclusivity among students.
- Inform students about the Anti-Ragging Cell, Grievance Cell and the channels available for reporting incidents.
- Reinforce the message of zero tolerance towards ragging and ensure a safe and secure environment for all students, particularly freshers.

Proceedings

The event commenced with a welcome address delivered by Dr. Swapan Mukhopadhyay, Teacher-In-Charge, highlighting the significance of Anti-Ragging Week.

Dr. Shantanu Hazra, Associate Professor, Dept. of Chemistry & Secretary of Teachers Council, addressed the gathering, emphasizing the role of faculty in preventing and addressing ragging. He reiterated the institution's commitment to creating a safe and supportive learning environment for all students.

Dr. Swapnadip Roy, Convener, Anti-Ragging Cell, provided a detailed overview of the Anti-Ragging Regulations and the measures implemented by the institution to ensure a ragging-free campus.

Honourable Governing Body Members expressed their full support for the Anti-Ragging initiatives and assured students that the college management would take all necessary steps to maintain a secure and harmonious campus.

Hostel Superintendents Prof. Tapasi Dey (Superintendent, Maa Sarada Girls' Hostel), Prof. Sudip Banerjee (Superintendent, Rabindra Chatrabas) and Prof. Sanjoy Sen (Superintendent, Sahghati Hostel) spoke on the specific measures implemented within the hostels to prevent ragging and to ensure the safety and well-being of the students residing there, especially freshers. They highlighted the importance of their presence as a resource for students facing difficulties adjusting to hostel life and stressed their role in creating a welcoming environment. A significant highlight of the observance was the Anti-Ragging Pledge, where all attendees reaffirmed their commitment to maintaining a ragging-free campus and supporting their peers in the fight against this social evil.

Conclusion

The observance of Anti-Ragging Week was a success in raising awareness among students and the wider college community about the harmful effects of ragging and the institutional efforts to prevent it. The presence and participation of Dr. Swapan Mukhopadhyay, Dr. Swapnadip Roy, Dr. Mrinmoy Shannigrahi, Dr. Shantanu Hazra, Dr. Rajendra P. Mondal, Dr. Surajit Majumder, other Governing Body Members, and Hostel Superintendents served as a powerful testament to the institution's dedication to ensuring a safe and positive learning environment for all students. The week's events reinforced the message that ragging is a punishable offense and that a culture of mutual respect and empathy is essential for fostering a positive academic and social atmosphere. The institution remains committed to upholding the Anti-Ragging Regulations and will continue to work proactively to achieve a completely ragging-free environment.
